Punish My Wicked People With My Pandemic, Amen!

"My son, I Am with you. I Am with you forever! I Am going to destroy My people because they will not serve Me- they serve themselves. They will be rounded up into Hell. I will send My pandemic, and dead bodies will litter the land. They will be everywhere. The skeletons of the dead shall persist for decades- that's how many people will die- they shall be everywhere, My son. My son, obey Me. Do My will. I Am with you. My people refuse to obey Me, My son. I called them to great things- evangelism around the world. That they refuse to do- they refuse to evangelize My lost, My son. They refuse to obey Me. They shall be gathered into Hell, My wicked people who refuse to do My will, My son. They refuse to obey Me. Churches everywhere shall be decimated, devoid of people, congregations scattered to the four winds- they refuse to obey Me, My son. My people, My Christian people, shall be decimated everywhere, cast to the winds, and buried in mass graves everywhere. My sinners too- they do not obey nor repent. I will kill them all everywhere, says God Almighty. Repent. I have spoken, amen forever!"
